1. Boy Jan - a love song to my son, Brenda's grandson - and to Boy Jans everywhere		1. Five Threes - 3 wise men, 3 gifts, 3 shepherds, 3 fishers, 3 nails...
2. Humphrey Davy - one of Cornwall's most famous sons		2. Allan Apple - a Cornish tradition of apple-giving in October, as remembered by Brenda
3. The Mermaid - wistful and beautiful, the story of the Mermaid of Zennor		3. Loving Eyes - a song for me!
4. Abel George - a humorous, if cruel, song about the life of a miner, written by Mike Sagar-Fenton		4. James Ruse - the Cornish 'convict' who sowed the first grain in Australia
5. Tishomingo Blues - one of Brenda's smoothest blues numbers		5. Charlie Bate - a much-loved accordion player from Padstow
6. Kerra Kernow - Most beloved Cornwall...		6. I Wish That I Were Crossing Now - every bridge over the Tamar, back home to Cornwall
		7. Pensevyk Byghan - a lullaby written for my son Davy
